Handwritten cursive practice on lined paper. The text consists of approximately 10 lines of continuous, flowing script. The characters are highly stylized and interconnected, characteristic of a cursive hand. The lines are written on a set of three horizontal lines (top, middle, bottom). The overall appearance is that of a personal practice sheet or a sample of a specific cursive style.

Handwritten cursive text on lined paper, appearing to be a list or series of notes. The text is written in a fluid, cursive style and includes various characters and symbols, such as letters, numbers, and punctuation. The lines of text are connected, suggesting a continuous flow of writing. The text is written on a set of horizontal lines, with the baseline of each line serving as a guide for the height of the letters. The overall appearance is that of a personal or working manuscript.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 10 lines of text. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a cursive script. The text is written in black ink on white paper with horizontal blue lines.

Handwritten cursive text on a four-line grid. The text is written in a fluid, connected script. The first line contains a series of connected loops and curves. The second line continues the pattern with more complex shapes. The third line shows a series of connected 'u' and 'v' shapes. The fourth line features a series of connected 'e' and 'f' shapes. The fifth line contains a series of connected 'o' and 'p' shapes. The sixth line shows a series of connected 'q' and 'r' shapes. The seventh line contains a series of connected 's' and 't' shapes. The eighth line features a series of connected 'u' and 'v' shapes. The ninth line shows a series of connected 'w' and 'x' shapes. The tenth line contains a series of connected 'y' and 'z' shapes. The text ends with a series of connected loops and curves.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The script is highly stylized and appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a cursive script. The characters are fluid and interconnected, with some characters resembling letters like 'n', 'l', 'o', 'p', 'q', 'r', 's', 't', 'u', 'v', 'w', 'x', 'y', 'z' but often with additional flourishes or modifications. The text is written in black ink on a white background with horizontal lines.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The script is highly stylized and appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a cursive alphabet. The characters are fluid and interconnected, with varying line heights and flourishes. The text is written in black ink on white paper with horizontal ruling lines.

Handwritten text on a single line:  $f(b) - 2b, p_{23} - p \sim$

Handwritten cursive text on a lined background. The text is written in a fluid, connected script and spans approximately 10 lines. The characters are somewhat stylized and difficult to decipher as they do not correspond to a standard Latin alphabet. The text appears to be a continuous passage of writing.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The script is highly stylized and appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a cursive script. The characters are fluid and interconnected, with some lines starting with a small flourish or 'hook'. The text is written in black ink on white paper with horizontal ruling lines.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The writing is fluid and characteristic of 19th-century penmanship. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and lack of punctuation, but some words and structures are discernible. The lines of text are as follows:

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a form or document, consisting of approximately 10 lines of text. The text is written in black ink on a white background with horizontal lines. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a mix of letters and numbers. The text is arranged in a vertical column, starting from the top left and moving downwards. The first line begins with a large, decorative flourish. The text ends with a large, decorative flourish at the bottom.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The writing is fluid and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century penmanship. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and some fading, but appears to be a continuous passage of text.

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation consists of various rhythmic symbols, including stems, beams, and note heads, written in a cursive style. Some symbols have superscripted 'x' marks. The notation is arranged in a series of horizontal lines, with some symbols extending above and below the lines.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The writing is fluid and characteristic of 19th-century German cursive. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and some fading, but appears to be a continuous paragraph or list of entries. The lines are written on a set of three horizontal lines (top, middle, bottom).

Let us put  $z = re^{i\theta}$ ,
 $z^2 = r^2 e^{i2\theta} = r^2 (\cos 2\theta + i \sin 2\theta)$
and  $z = r(\cos \theta + i \sin \theta)$ .

Then  $\frac{z^2}{z} = r \frac{e^{i2\theta}}{e^{i\theta}} = r e^{i\theta} = z$ .
Similarly,  $\frac{z^3}{z^2} = z$ ,  $\frac{z^4}{z^3} = z$ , and so on. In general,  $\frac{z^n}{z^{n-1}} = z$ .
This shows that  $z^n = z \cdot z^{n-1}$ .
If  $z = re^{i\theta}$ , then  $z^n = r^n e^{in\theta}$ .
Therefore,  $z^n = r^n (\cos n\theta + i \sin n\theta)$ .

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, likely a sample of a specific calligraphic style. The text is illegible due to the cursive nature of the writing. The script features fluid, connected letters with varying line thicknesses and some decorative flourishes. The word "[Francke]" is clearly legible in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten cursive script on lined paper, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of a cursive script. The text is written in black ink on white paper with horizontal blue lines.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a form or document, consisting of approximately 12 lines of text. The text is written in black ink on a white background with horizontal lines. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a mix of letters and numbers. The text is arranged in a vertical column, starting from the top left and moving downwards. The lines are roughly as follows:

- Line 1: A series of connected loops and curves, possibly starting with a capital letter.
- Line 2: Similar to the first line, with more distinct shapes.
- Line 3: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 4: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 5: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 6: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 7: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 8: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 9: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 10: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 11: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.
- Line 12: A series of loops, possibly containing a number '2'.

Handwritten text on a ruled page, consisting of approximately 12 lines of cursive script. The text is written in black ink on white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of shorthand or a very fast cursive. The lines are roughly as follows:

Line 1: A series of connected loops and curves, starting with a large 'S' shape.

Line 2: Similar to the first line, with a prominent 'W' or 'M' shape.

Line 3: A series of smaller, more frequent loops.

Line 4: A series of larger, more spaced-out loops.

Line 5: A series of smaller, more frequent loops.

Line 6: A series of larger, more spaced-out loops.

Line 7: A series of smaller, more frequent loops.

Line 8: A series of larger, more spaced-out loops.

Line 9: A series of smaller, more frequent loops.

Line 10: A series of larger, more spaced-out loops.

Line 11: A series of smaller, more frequent loops.

Line 12: A series of larger, more spaced-out loops.
