Handwritten signature or name

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in a cursive script. The text is dense and spans multiple lines, covering most of the page. It appears to be a personal or official communication, possibly a letter or a report, given the date at the top. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of a specific style, possibly from the early 20th century.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a form or document, consisting of approximately 15 lines of text. The text is written in black ink on a white background with horizontal lines. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a mix of letters and numbers. The text is arranged in a single column, starting from the top left and moving downwards. The lines are roughly horizontal, following the guide lines of the paper.
